AFFIDAVIT

On Monday, July 1, 1974, I removed, under Secret Service supervision, the following three items from the special files section of Room 84 of the Old Executive Office Building:

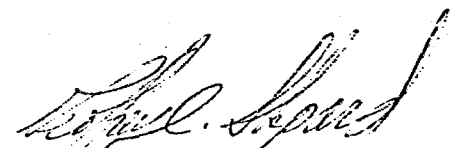

- (1) What appeared to be the original, ribbon copy of a memorandum from David R. Young to John Ehrlichman, dated August 26, 1971, entitled Status of Information Which Can be fed Into Congressional Investigation on Pentagon Papers Affair. The memorandum consisted of five full typewritten pages, plus an attachment which was a carbon copy of a memorandum for Charles Colson from John Ehrlichman, dated August 27, 1971, entitled Hunt/Liddy Special Project #1.

This memorandum was removed from a file entitled "Leaks", located in box #1 of John D. Ehrlichman's files.

- (2) What appeared to be the original, ribbon copy of a memorandum from David R. Young to John Ehrlichman, dated August 25, 1971, entitled Status Report on Pentagon Study Project. The memorandum consisted of one page with no attachments, and was removed from a file entitled "Leaks", located in Box #1 of John D. Ehrlichman's files.
- (3) A single sheet of yellow legal-sized paper, written in pencil beginning "Ehrlichman Reviewed Last Week March 1973". This item was located in the second file drawer of the safe entitled "David Young's Files", folded in half between two bound legal files.

The three aforementioned items were located pursuant to a letter from Charles R. Breyer to James D. St. Clair, dated June 21, 1974, requesting original copies of documents for use at trial in the case of United States v. Ehrlichman, et al. Criminal No. 74-116.

The three aforementioned items were delivered to Ms. Jean Staudt, Esq. on the afternoon of Monday, July 1, 1974, with the understanding that they would be transmitted forthwith to the Office of the Special Prosecutor.
