Dear Counselor:

In Re: Complaint of Geoffrey Shepard (10/3/21)

This third letter is submitted in furtherance of my Complaint concerning attorney misconduct, which was filed electronically on October 3, 2021.

It contains two points of clarification:

- First, although the electronic format required that I list a single lawyer, my misconduct complaint is really aimed at a number of Watergate Special Prosecution Force attorneys, which is why the brief summary of the Complaint filed on October 3rd began:

“WSPF attorneys, in the course of their Watergate investigations and prosecutions (U.S. v Mitchell, et al and U.S. v Ehrlichman, et al) violated the Due Process guarantees of the Fifth and Sixth Amendments . . .”

While Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski is deceased, the fruits of his misconduct live on, perpetuating the injustices that occurred during 1974.

There appear to be at least seventeen former WSPF attorneys who remain alive, including ones who participated in ex parte meetings with judges Sirica and Gesell, since they recently co-signed an OpEd piece advocating Trump's impeachment: https://www.washingtonpost.com/opinions/we-investigated-the-watergate-scandal-we-believe-trump-should-be-impeached/2019/10/10/5cf0c2ce-eb72-11e9-9306-47cb0324fd44_story.html.

I would single out Philip Lacovara, Richard Ben-Veniste, George Frampton, Peter Rient, Jill Wine-Banks and Carl Feldbaum as being of particular interest.

- Second, I should explain the organization and purpose of my website, www.ShepardOnWatergate.com. It is designed primarily as a resource for scholars and researchers, in that it contains the benefits of all of my research, as well as links to virtually all of the troubling documents I've uncovered within WSPF files at our National Archives (and, to a limited extent, at Harvard's law library). The website presumes the user has read my Watergate books, but then makes access to their appendices and referenced documents much more readily available. Your investigation also should benefit from this approach.

I again reiterate my request for the opportunity to make an in-person presentation, so that I can respond to any questions or concerns in a detailed manner. After all, I've been at this for over fifteen years and have lots of conduct questions to raise and lots of points to make.

Respectfully submitted,

Geoffrey C Shepard Esq.
